Die Neue Sammlung – Staatliches Museum für angewandte Kunst / Design in der Pinakothek der Moderne

18.3.–7.5.: »Hermann Jünger – Schmuckstücke Fundstücke« Beneath the light-filled dome of the Rotunda of the Pinakothek der Moderne 'Die neue Sammlung' is showing a choice selection of Hermann Jünger's work – his jewellery alongside with parts of his remarkable and eclectic collection of found objects from which he has derived inspiration. The conception and production of the exhibition were developed in close collaboration with this pioneer of jewellery design up to his death in January 2005 – a unique insight into the artistic process and this master jeweller's way of seeing, thinking and working.

Residenz München

30.3.–30.7.: »Bayerns Krone; 1806–200 Jahre Königreich Bayern«

The year 2006 marks the 200th anniversary of the elevation of Bavaria to the status of a kingdom. The main focus of the exhibition is on the situation in Bavaria in 1806. At the show the splendour of the early Bavarian monarchy will be brought to life by the magnificent symbols and trappings of the young kingdom, including the original royal insignia and coronation robes, which can be seen in the treasury. Numerous high-quality loans from collections all over Europe will add to the impressively broad documentation of the challenges of this optimistic time of new beginnings.
