HANAU

Deutsches Goldschmiedehaus Hanau

20.1.–6.4.: »Schönheit und Magie« Jewellery from faraway countries. Over 150 items of jewellery and amulets from non-European cultures form the focal point of the presentation. A special eyecatcher: festive silver jewellery of the Miao (South China), one of the most populous mountain tribes of South-East Asia. On display is jewellery in the form of amulets and Far-Eastern silversmith works from North-Africa, India, Himalaya, China, Uzbekistan and further countries.

24.1.–3.4.: »Momentopia« Jiro Kamata
During his residence as Hanau city goldsmith the Japanese jewellery artist Jiro Kamata from Munich devoted himself to the recording of present occurrences and interesting discoveries, which he then set in the optical glasses of camera lenses.

10.4.–Mid June: »Nsaio 3 – Neuer Schmuck aus Idar-Oberstein III« With a selection of 100 items 30 students present the work they produced in the last two years, which came about as part of various study projects. The emphasis is on interesting new ideas on jewellery design, but the small objects will also feature in the traveling exhibition, which will also be on show in Lappeenranta (FIN).
10.4.–4.6.: »X-Bones« Svenja John (Berlin)
Svenja John uses Makrofol® for her jewellery, a polycarbonate extruded to foil. Her jewellery is fitted together; using a sophisticated technique she creates form modules that are arranged alongside or inside each others, the result: semi-opaque clusters. For her latest works she employs an additive combination method – the so-called X-Bone becomes the centerpiece of an airy composition.
12.6.–5.9.: »Zehn Jahre Alchimia« Goldsmith school in Florence. Over the last ten years the Alchimia in Florence has developed into an important private school for jewellery designers in the cultural heart of Italy.
28.6.–21.9.: »Highlights aus der Sammlung des Deutschen Goldschmiedehauses« The focus of the collection is on jewellery and silversmith works from the years after 1945.
